

Post doctoral activities of Salahaddin University-Erbil academic staff

Title of the research: Kurdish broadcasting / Kurdish Radio

Name: Dr. Magded Khider Ahmed

Supervisor Name: Pr. Dr. Mikhaylov Sergey

Department/College: Media – College of Arts

Department/College: Media - Syktyvkar State University

Email: sapanov@hotmail.com

University/Country :Russia

Mobile: 004964 (750) 453 84 97

email: analogist@rambler.ru

Period: Sept.1st, 2014-march 1st,2015

Summary:

The Kurdish Radio Broadcast

The Kurdish Radio Broadcast; is a title of a research by Co-researchers Assistant Prof. Dr. Magded Khider Ahmed Sapan at College of Arts/Salahaddin University and Pro. Mikhaylov Sergey at Syktyvkar State University, they did the work together during the years 2014-2015. Under the name of both universities, the research was printed and published as a book in spring 2015 in Russian language.

It's a first research paper written as a joint research between the two universities; the Salahaddin university in Kurdistan region and a university from Russia about Kurdish radio, it welcomed warmly by orientalists and experts in this field. Professor Mikhaylov Sergey, is a well-known professor in the field of media. He wrote several of books and articles where taught at European and American universities. Both of authors, who have written this, research, in general, talking about the history of radio appearance in Kurdistan and the entire world. they mentioned about current and future situations of the radio stations in Kurdistan, also they telling of the role of radio in the technological era of globalization and common economy. In another part, they explain the history of radio and its role in the revolutions, especially in the Kurdish movement, and have extensive knowledge about the reporters and broadcasters Kurdish accurately and professionally. In the book (Kurdish Radio Broadcast), there is a great interest in the quality of journalistic work in radio, especially technically, ethically, objectively, journalist and legal work, there is also interest in organizational terms, work with the Council of Radio and teamwork in radio. The media department students and orientalist benefit better, especially from the Kurdish experience in the field of radio.

Before the publication of this research, both of (Dr. Akram) in Mardin University and (Dr. Bekov) in the University of St. Petersburg, evaluated this research and agreed to publish, this book it will be published at the end of the year 2015.

Acknowledgment: I would like to record my great appreciation for Salahaddin University-Erbil-Kurdistan (<http://www.su.edu.krd>), for granting me the post doctorate leave and giving me full salary study permission for the whole period of the study in Russia.